Embark on an Academic Adventure: FAU Exchange Program with NWU

Are you a registered second-year master's student eager to broaden your academic horizons and immerse yourself in a vibrant cultural experience? Look no further! Friedrich-Alexander-Universität Erlangen-Nürnberg (FAU) is thrilled to announce our exchange program in collaboration with the Unit of Environmental Sciences and Management (NWU).

About the Program: Join the Erasmus Student Exchange 2023/2024 and delve into the realm of Environmental Science and beyond. While the primary focus lies in Environmental Science, students from neighbouring disciplines such as urban studies, disaster studies, and more are welcome. This exchange promises an enriching academic journey tailored to ignite your intellectual curiosity and foster interdisciplinary collaboration.

Language of Instruction: FAU embraces diversity and accommodates students from various linguistic backgrounds. The language of instruction will be English. You will be provided preparatory German courses before the commencement of lectures, ensuring that language barriers are seamlessly overcome.

Term Structure and Language Courses:

The summer term extends from April to July. Students will partake in intensive German courses, with all costs covered by FAU. Furthermore, the Language Centre offers complimentary language courses at all proficiency levels, facilitating a smooth transition into academic life at FAU.

Why FAU? Established in 1743, FAU is one of Germany's premier research universities, boasting a legacy of academic excellence and innovation. In the 2023 Shanghai Ranking's Global Ranking of Academic Subjects, FAU secured the top position among all German universities in Telecommunication Engineering. Situated in the picturesque cities of Erlangen and Nuremberg in Bavaria, FAU offers a perfect blend of academia, culture, and recreation. From opera houses and museums to bustling nightlife and scenic landscapes, our region caters to diverse interests, ensuring an enriching experience inside and outside the classroom.

Fully Funded Exchange Program: This exchange program is fully funded, encompassing:

- Economy return flight ticket
- Accommodation arrangements
- Monthly stipend for living expenses.

Application Process: To apply, compile the following supporting documents into one PDF file and send them to the email address provided below:
